

Please do not weaken the current telephone privacy law. We have enjoyed not receiving unwanted solicitations and instead have had uninterrupted family time in the evenings and weekends. The businesses we have a relationship with we want it to stay one way - if we have a need we will go to them, and do not want them coming to us! Thank you.